What are you thankful for?

"I'm thankful for the people in my life who support me, for the challenges that help me grow, and for the everyday moments that bring joy. Whether it's a good conversation, a small success, or a chance to learn something new, I try to be grateful for it all."

"The heart that gives thanks is a happy one, for we cannot feel thankful and unhappy at the same time. Being thankful helps us see how much we really have."

— Douglas Wood
